

Managing the change

Our objective is to provide you with a trouble free implementation. We do this through excellent planning and by providing a team of ECM implementation specialists. Our rigorous end user training, system administrator training and early life support ensures that you quickly adapt to the new system and become fully self sufficient.

Our comprehensive project implementation service includes; ECM technology Proof of Concept (PoC) Model Office/Pilot implementation and testing System installation and configuration System administration training End user training Early-life support Documentation Workshops and skills transfer User Acceptance Test (UAT) planning Click here to request more information.